

OF THE CRANBOURNE LODGE

the Charity Box balance to £42 15s. completes the story.

Joint Meeting of the fiftieth year was held on the 26, when the P.M.'s present, unanimously decided in commemoration of the fact that the Lodge had commenced (subject to the consent of the Lodge by vote) of May, 1926, 100 guineas to the R.M.B.I. (also for 1927), 100 guineas to the R.M.I.G., 50 guineas to the R.M.B., and 50 guineas to the M.M. (making up the total of 100 guineas, and £40 from the Lodge to the Freemasons' Hospital (Samaritan Fund), a total of 1580 to £166.

Who scans these notes must be struck by one fact that 1580 is doing its duty and giving of its think, and think rightly, that no Lodge has a big balance for its own use. They agree that expenses, the balances of Lodges should be paid to Institutions which we have all promised to support on balance in Lodges is there for one universal cause only: then they say, pass it over to the which it belongs. And the more money the more good they can do. We have done what we can do, and while our members are strong, they intend to do the best they can do.
